

Responsibilities and Organization Chart

Vice President for Business Affairs & Chief Financial Officer

The Vice President for Business Affairs & Chief Financial Officer is responsible to the President for exercising the University's fiduciary responsibilities through management of financial policy and systems, financial controls, internal audit, research administration, risk management, public safety, information technology systems and services, human resources, bondholder relations and business development.

